*Stumbling up the steps
to McKinley High School,
I wonder where the summer
could have gone.
A whole new life
waits through that door,
Friendship and learning and much, much more . . .*

*Stumbling up the steps
to my locker each morning,
I'm amazed at the number of teachers I see.
There's Horton and Morgan,
and let's not forget,
Casto and Davis,
and Don Everett.*

*Stumbling up the steps while the band plays on,
The first pep rally had just begun.
Some say enthusiasm, some say spirit,
To really know it, you have to hear it.*

SMOKE STUDENT III

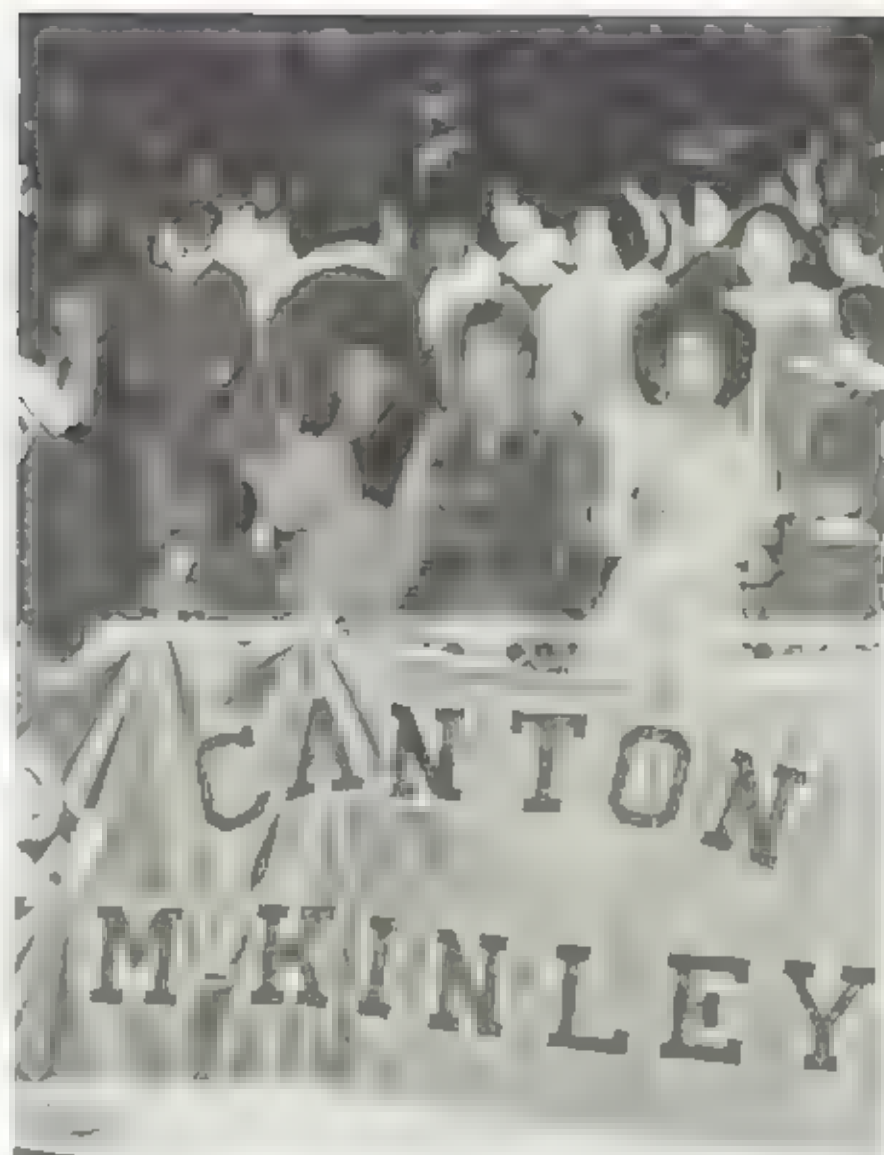

MCKINLEY

*Stumbling up the steps
to get a good seat,
The crisp night
air feels good.
We know when our team
is put to the test,
Win or lose,
our Bulldogs are best!*

Stumbling up the steps

I feel nervous and scared,

I was cramming all night

without stop.

In an hour it's over,

as I vacate my seat,

I feel proud 'cause I did it,

without a cheat sheet

*of c Paul

*Stumbling up the steps
you say "Excuse me,"
You help her up
and help her get her books.
And when you're finally talking in the end,
You discover that you've made a brand new friend.*

Stumbling up the steps, it's 7:45 —

There's a meeting for Key Club today.

Tomorrow it's Y-Teens, the next day it's speech;

Then there's the club for the kids who will teach.

*Stumbling up the steps,
I'm tired and sleepy,
I feel like I died
days ago.*

*Yes, Christmas is over and school's here to stay —
'Til our next day's vacation which isn't 'til May.*

*Stumbling up the steps
to find a good seat,
Before our lanky cagers
take the floor.
The buzzer sounds
to begin the game,
Bulldogs and victory
are one and the same.*

*Stumbling up the steps,
there's much on my mind;
What lies in the future
for me?
A job? Is it college?
what path should I take?
I must choose the one that is best for my sake.*

*Stumbling up the steps on that final day,
Departing with those memories of the past.
Yet, glad that it's over — for you must move on You've got living to do before life is gone.*

Next year's basketball team, with one returning starter and a small team, faces probably the strongest schedule in many years. With four or more games played most of the time, the team is respectable on winning 12 and losing 6. Three of these losses were to teams rated in the top ten in the state. Another loss was to Sharon, Pa., one of the strongest teams in Pennsylvania. Next year's team will be an almost all veteran squad and certainly more success is anticipated.

'T now that tiger over to me!' (Coach Mull after a victory at Massillon )

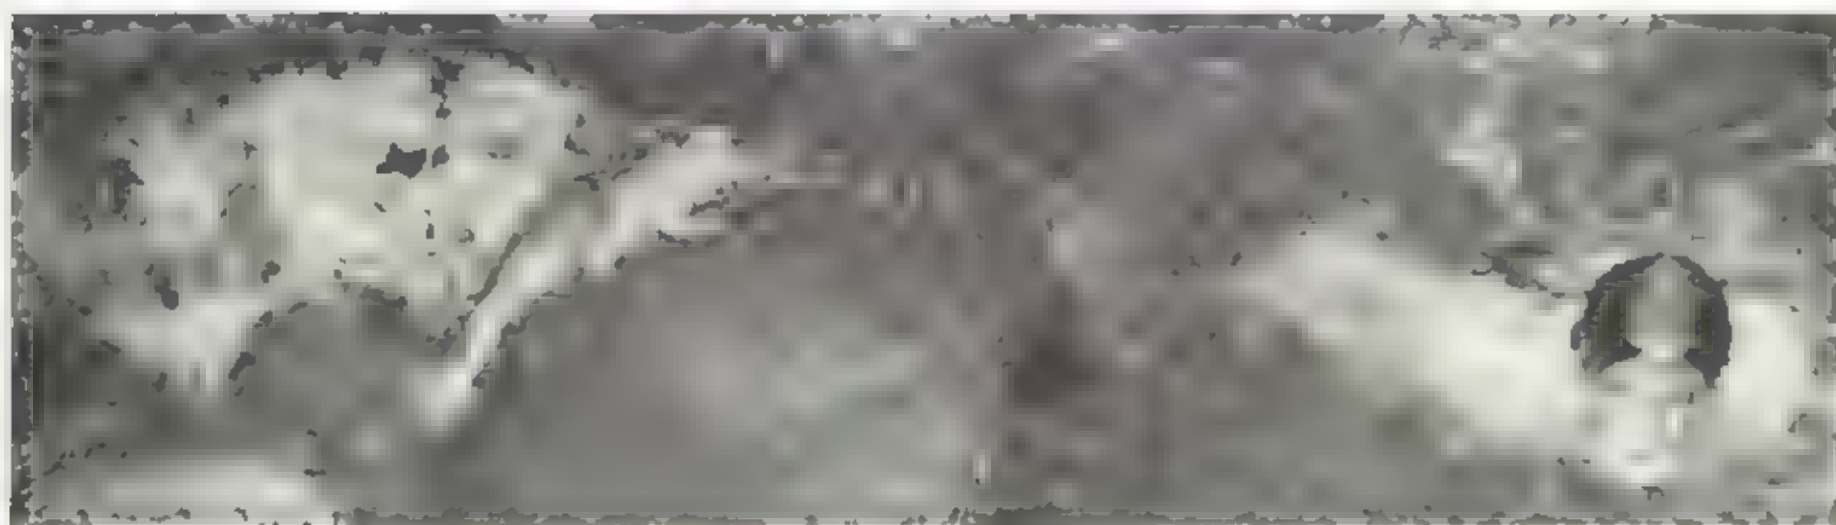

After being head swimming coach at McKinley for forty-four years, C. T. Branin retired. He compiled over three hundred dual meet victories and lost fewer than ninety. He took his teams to the state championship an unprecedented thirteen times.

Mr. Branin is a charter member and past president of the National Interscholastic Swim Coaches Association, and a life member of the Executive Committee of the Ohio High School Swim Coaches Association. He is a recipient of the National Interscholastic Swim Coaches Association Hall of Fame Award in 1973. Mr. Branin was also voted Ohio Swim Coach of the year in 1968. The new two million dollar natatorium now being constructed is named in his honor.

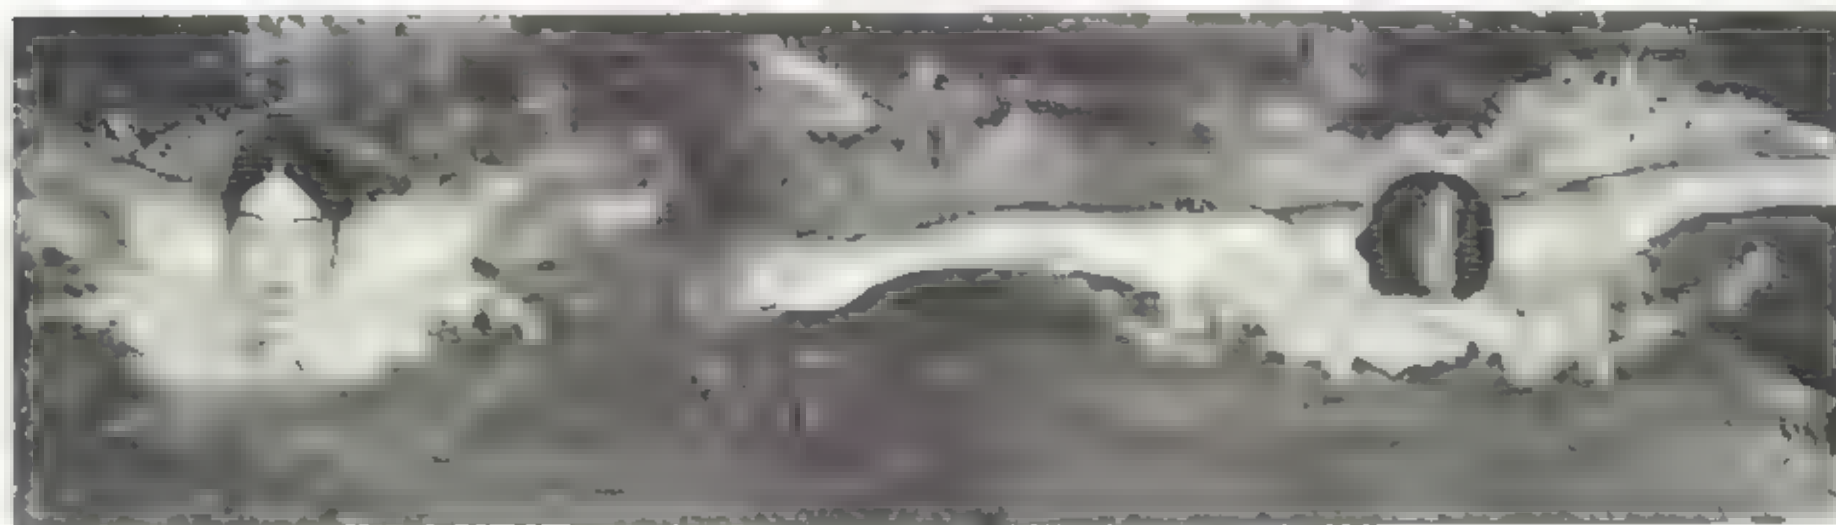

Mr. Branin left his mark as he exerted a positive influence on every young person who had the honor of knowing this great man.

1972 McKinley Track

The spikers finished undefeated in dual meet competition for the second year in a row under Coach Dave Behner. (18-0) McKinley repeated as "All-City Champs" to make it 19 out of 20 for the series. Other highlights of the season saw the thin-clads repeat as North Canton Invitational Champs, Sectional Champs and victors of their own Canton Relays. High point man for the season was Dwight Lewis with 125 points

Many old school records were shattered as the Bulldogs approached their final goal "The State Meet." Without the effort of the 880 yd. relay team which was disqualified in the district meet the Pups still managed to finish 6th in the State

a step ahead

George soars high and a school record is shattered.

One more hurdle.

McKinley Track Records

The McKinley National Forensic League is the High School's Speech and Debate organization. Over 40 students compete weekly to improve their speaking ability.

Success has been the tradition of the organization over the past few years as many students have qualified for competition at the State Tournament. For four successive years, McKinley has qualified students for the National Tournament.

NFL sponsors many social events throughout the year...a Halloween, Christmas and Valentine's Day Party as well as a Bowling and Roller Skating Party. The year finishes with the Annual Award's Banquet.

A happy Marcella Alexander accepts her award in Oratorical Declamation. The speech she delivers is called "Five Years Of Hell."

Tournament bus rides provide a great deal of fun---jokes, songs and even "some practice" for the upcoming tournament.

Coaches Varner and Brunner plan strategy to accomplish another McKinley victory.

After attending Speech and Debate Tournaments, students return to McKinley with smiles and tears---and sometimes trophies.

Michele Pelyak, Mike Thompson, Marcella Alexander, Bev Mahone, and Carol Spotleson display the results of their efforts.

Waiting for tournament results in the auditorium sometimes takes forever. Rhonda Leeper smiles while Carol Spotleson yawns. Larry Moye appears nervous while Luther Edwards thinks he's on Candid Camera. Quite a combination of emotions.
